

The BUILD Model

Prevention, Intervention, and BUILDing Futures coordinates services that benefit youth by assessing their needs and identifying support through BUILD and in conjunction with our community partners. Activities occur during school, after school, on weekends, and school vacations. Most are held in community partners' facilities, such as schools, park districts, churches, and human service agencies.